(2) Prizes are subject to forfeiture by an exhibitor for violations of the Junior Livestock Division rules and regulations upon a final determination of a violation pursuant to paragraph H of this rule.

(F) EXHIBITOR RESPONSIBILITY

The exhibitor shall be the absolute insurer of and shall be responsible for the condition of an animal exhibited at the Ohio State Fair Junior Livestock Competitions, regardless of the acts of a third party. Should the testing and inspection procedures used by the Ohio Expositions Commission evidence the presence of a foreign substance or any drug not medically necessary or not approved for such use by the Food and Drug Administration or United States Department of Agriculture, the exhibitor, a member of the exhibitor's immediate family or any other person shown to have had care, custody or attendance of the animal in any way, at the discretion of the Ohio Expositions Commission, may be subjected to the penalties provided for in paragraph (i) of this rule.

(G) TESTING AND INSPECTION OF ANIMALS

(1) The General Manager of the Ohio Expositions Commission or his designated agent may conduct testing or inspection of any and all animals entered in a junior livestock division competition before, during or after the competition to carry out the following purposes:

(2) All animals entered in the junior livestock division are subject to inspection or testing by the Ohio Department of Agriculture pursuant to Title IX of the Revised Code, or any rules or regulations promulgated there under.

(H) RULE VIOLATIONS

(1) Upon receiving a report or evidence of a violation of these rules, the General Manager of the Ohio Expositions Commission shall notify the affected person in writing of a suspected rule violation and the nature of the suspected violation, prior to the initiation of any proceedings to disqualify the entry or person under paragraph (H) (3) of this rule.

(2) The General Manager of the Ohio Expositions Commission shall report a suspected rule violation to the Ohio Expositions Commission or a committee of the Commission appointed to hear such matters within fifteen days of receiving a report or evidence of a violation(s) of these rules, or within five days of the completion of a preliminary inquiry of the matter by the General Manager of the Ohio Expositions Commission which ever is later.

(3) Upon receiving a report or recommendation from the General Manager of the Ohio Expositions Commission to initiate proceedings against a person or entry for a violation (s) of these rules, the Ohio Expositions Commission or a committee appointed by the Commission to hear such matters may issue notice of its intention to disqualify an entry made in the Junior Livestock Competition, the exhibitor or a member of his immediate family, or any other person shown to have had care, custody or attendance of the animal. The notice shall be in writing and state the grounds for such disqualification, including a statement of the evidence of any rule violation, a statement of the rules violated, and a statement of the penalties to be imposed. The notice shall inform the affected person of the right to a hearing before the Ohio Expositions Commission and the right to review the evidence of any rule violation, the right to present evidence in support of the person's case, the right to present any arguments, contentions or other objections to the Commission, and the right to be represented by counsel at the hearing. The Commission shall maintain a record of the hearing.

(4) Any request for a hearing shall be in writing, and shall be filed with the Ohio Expositions Commission within thirty (30) days from the date on which the exhibitor or person was issued a notice of intention to disqualify the entry, exhibitor or other person. Upon receiving a request for a hearing, a hearing shall be held at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Commission. The hearing may be continued upon motion of the affected person or the Commission, at the discretion of the Commission.

(5) Upon hearing all the evidence and arguments in the case of disqualification, the Commission shall render its final decision in writing to the affected person. The decision shall set forth the basis for the decision and the penalties imposed by the Commission as provided for in paragraph (I) of this rule.

(I) PENALTIES

(1) An exhibitor determined to have violated these rules pursuant to the procedure set forth in paragraph (H) of these rules may be subject to the following penalties at the discretion of the Ohio Expositions Commission;

(1) Exhibitors must show their own animals, except in the following circumstances:

(a) The exhibitor is impaired;

(b) The exhibitor has two entries in the same class;

(c) The exhibitor presents a copy of the entry form or other documentation establishing the need for an early release or late arrival to the Agricultural Director of the Ohio Expositions Commission or his designee in advance of the show date;

(d) The exhibitor shall be granted only one early release or late arrival;

(K) PROTESTS

(1) Protests regarding any junior livestock competition shall be in writing and signed by the party making the protest.

(2) Protests regarding any junior livestock competition shall be submitted to the General Manager of the Ohio Expositions Commission no later than twelve noon of the day following the competition.

(3) Any party making a protest shall submit a fee of one hundred dollars to the Ohio Expositions Commission. The fee shall be refunded only if the protest is sustained by the Ohio State Fair General Manager.

(4) The General Manager of the Ohio Expositions Commission shall hold a meeting regarding the protest at which time the party making protest may present evidence or argument in support of the protest.

(5) The written decision of the General Manager shall be final and shall be served by mail on the party making the protest within ten days of the date on which the protest was heard.

(L) TERMINAL SHOW

(1) All market animals that win their division as grand champion or reserve grand champion shall be slaughtered upon their sale. The exhibitor shall release the animal to the care and custody of the Agricultural Director of the Ohio Expositions Commission or his designee on the date and time designated by the Agriculture Director. The exhibitor shall maintain absolute responsibility and care or custody of the animal until such date and time as the animal is released to the Agricultural Director.

OHIO EXPOSITIONS COMMISSION YOUTH RESERVE PROGRAM

The Youth Reserve Program (YRP) was established after the 1995 fair to distribute money received over auction cap limits.

The amount of money received in the Youth Reserve Program will be established after all auctions are completed. The 2014 Youth Reserve Program amount will be published in the 2015 Livestock Premium Book on how the money will be allocated. The Ohio Expositions Commission will decide how the money is distributed by categories in the Livestock Exhibitor Information.
