SPECIAL RULES

The Junior Fair Show will be a sanctioned American Dairy Goat Association Show through the courtesy of the Ohio Dairy Goat Association. The Junior and Senior shows ARE NOT separately sanctioned. ADGA rules shall govern. Following the completion of the Senior Doe Shows a Grand Champion of the show will be selected which will be the winner of the Junior Doe and Senior Doe Shows. Reserve Grand Champion of the show may be the Grand of the Division which did not win in the previous class or the Reserve in the Division that produced the Grand Champion.

1. This show is open to all boys and girls having dairy goat projects in Ohio 4-H or FFA.

2. Each exhibitor is limited to a total of ten (10) breeding entries with a maximum of two (2) entries per class. Substitution can be made only within the same class breed the animal(s) is entered.

3. Any breed failing to exhibit a total of 20 animals will be cause for evaluation of continuing this breed or division in future shows.

4. All entries must be made in the bona fide owner's name.

5. All junior dairy goat exhibitors shall present a certificate or registration for each animal shown. The certificate of registration for the animal shall stand in the name of the individual or the exhibitor's immediate family farm name. Any animal owned in partnership with anyone outside of the immediate family must have the individual name listed on the registration paper.

6. All goats must be dehorned.

7. Dairy goats presented for exhibition must show no evidence of contagious lymphadenitis (superficial abscesses), contagious ecthyma (sore mouth), or foot rot. These goats are not to be unloaded and cannot be shown. The exhibition officials and the approved veterinarian have the right to bar any animal from being unloaded, penned in the barn, or shown. They may order the removal of any animal. These decisions are final. For more information please go to Ohio Department of Agriculture website, www.agri.ohio.gov, click on the Division of Animal Health.

8. All breeds listed will compete in separate classes.

9. With the exception of junior, intermediate and senior kids, ages of all goat classes will be calculated as of the day of the junior show.

10. Grain, hay and straw, as well as first bedding, will not be provided; but, it will be available for purchase. Preferred Bedding is straw.

11. In order to improve coordination with the open class dairy goat show, the open superintendent will make pen assignments for junior dairy goat exhibitors.

Exceptions will be made only for exhibitors who may be physically impaired, who have two animals entered in the same class, or an exhibitor absent on show day due to other commitments. In case of these exceptions another boy or girl who is eligible to be an Ohio Junior Division Exhibitor may exhibit the animal with the authorization of the Superintendent in charge. If a Junior Fair Livestock Exhibitor cannot be present at the time of judging, the exhibitor will need to present to the Superintendent's Office a written permission notice signed by the football coach, band director or any other person in charge of an activity that is in conflict and prevents the exhibitor from being present at the time of judging. This notice must be on official letterhead of the organization and given to the department director 24 hours before show day and must include name, county, birthdate, home phone number, and complete address of the exhibitor's, home and work of the person in charge of the event (i.e. football coach, band director, etc.) Also include a brief description of the conflict.

15. If an exhibitor leaves the show ring before being excused by the judge it may result in forfeiture of all premiums.
