

Columbus All Breed Training Club at the Ohio State Fair July 30 - 31, 2016 Shows: 11am, 2pm, & 5pm

Established in 1953, Columbus All Breed Training Club is an AKC licensed, nonprofit dog-training club located at 2164 Williams Road, Columbus, Ohio.

CATC is over 600 members strong and is one of the largest and most active dog clubs in the country.

With thousands of hours of combined experience, all of CATC's volunteer instructors are dedicated to promoting responsible dog ownership and enhancing the relationship between owners and their companions.

CATC offers puppy kindergarten, beginning obedience, and conformation classes to the general public as well as agility (just like on T.V.), competition obedience, Rally, Earthdog, and other specialty classes to our members. Purebred and mixed breed dogs of all ages are all welcome to attend.

Your canine companion wants to be a good family member and citizen. CATC can help you teach him how to achieve it.
