One item can only be displayed in one location/department.

Display Requirements

- Entry tags must accompany each entry and should be securely attached. If a single entry includes more than one piece, the exhibitor must label each piece in a set (example: 1 of 3, 2 of 3, 3 of 3, etc.).
- By entering the Arts, you are allowing the Ohio State Fair permission to use photographs of your work at the Fair's discretion, without compensation or further approval.
- Once an item has been accepted for judging, it must remain in the building for the duration of the Fair.
- To maintain a proper and fair judging process, artist's/contestant's name must not be visible on item(s).
- The name and address portion of the entry tag will be covered during judging.
- Artists/Contestants must not deface entry tags to mark them in a way that might be recognizable by a judge (i.e. rubber stamps, passes, unusual ink colors, staples, etc.).

Judging

- At the discretion of exhibition/entry organizers and/or judges, awards may not be given if the quality of an entry is not deemed deserving of an award. Judging is based on recognized standards of quality, skill and workmanship. Artists/Contestants who are honored with an award from the Ohio State Fair know that it is because their entry was judged as a quality entry by qualified and impartial judges.
- No person shall act as a judge in any division where a family member is competing. Volunteers or staff exhibiting may not work or assist judging in the division/class of entry.
- Judges decisions are final.
- Judging results will NOT be given over the phone.
